

Self-certification for mandatory overnight stays required due to work

This declaration is required if the mandatory overnight stays in Trier cannot be proven through a booking, billed party, employer certification or similar personal proof.

This certification serves as proof of mandatory overnight stays for work in Trier, and may be presented to the accommodation establishment.

Name and address of guest:
<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
from:	to:
<hr/>	<hr/>

<input type="checkbox"/> I am self-employed/a freelancer:
Registered for income tax with the following tax authority:
<hr/>
Business address:
<hr/> <hr/>
Reason for earning income: _____

<input type="checkbox"/> I am a salaried employee:
Relevant document enclosed.
Employer's name, if not shown elsewhere:
<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

Note

Submitting this declaration is voluntary, and serves solely to determine the tax liability in accordance with the City of Trier's statutes on city tax. The data collected is forwarded to the City of Trier, which reserves the right to review it. If no consent is given for this step, the city tax shall be charged by the accommodation establishment. Consent is provided for the data to be processed and used. False certifications may be prosecuted as administrative offences or criminal acts.

_____
City and date

_____
Guest's signature